

Where digital meets real.

Who we are

We are Blue Castle Ventures, an international fintech company operating across Canada and the United States. Built on the principle of bridging technological innovation with trusted financial traditions, we offer a private membership model that connects people with transparent, well-structured investment opportunities. Every project we develop reflects our commitment to integrity, accountability, and long-term value creation — empowering our members to grow their capital securely within a modern, ethical, and forward-thinking environment.

Mission

Our mission is to democratize access to reliable, high-performing financial products through an exclusive membership ecosystem. We combine rigorous due diligence with fintech innovation to deliver investment solutions built on trust. By upholding the highest standards of transparency, legal clarity, and international regulatory compliance, we aim to empower everyday investors with the same quality of opportunities traditionally reserved for large institutions.

Vision

Our vision is to become the leading project incubator in the Americas — recognized for our transparency, innovation, and accountability. We aspire to build a future where technology and finance coexist with trust, providing our members with sustained growth and security. Through global expansion and the strengthening of our partnerships, we seek to set a new standard in ethical fintech: one defined by honesty, accessibility, and long-term impact.

Our Journey

Fintech Sandbox

Recognized within a regulatory sandbox, we began developing products that bring together traditional banking and blockchain technology.

2020

Media Recognition

We earned a verified profile in Inc. Magazine, and our CEO presented our products on Nasdaq TV.

2022

Regulatory Approval

We obtained SEC approval to launch a regulated financial vehicle in the U.S., offering greater protection for our members' deposits.

2024

2019

Foundation

Blue Castle Ventures Ltd. launched operations, laying the groundwork for our mission to innovate within the financial sector.

2021

Expansion

We entered new markets across South America, the U.S., and Europe — establishing commercial representation and a growing membership base as our reputation for reliability continued to expand.

2023

Stock Exchange Listing

We initiated negotiations with Nasdaq to become a publicly traded company via OTC.

2025

Greater Expansion

We had a greater expansion in South America and officially moved our headquarters to New York.

Where we are

Blue Castle Ventures is a fintech company headquartered in New York with an international presence. We have advisors and commercial representation across multiple regions, allowing us to offer Digital Investment Certificates to a global membership base. Our CEO, David Rojas, is a trader with over 17 years of experience and a recognized voice in the industry — a recurring speaker on Nasdaq TV.

Our Strategy

Our strategy is built on diversifying the fund across short, medium, and long-term portfolios, enabling us to adapt to different economic cycles while delivering consistent returns. By operating without intermediaries or external capital, we maintain full control over our financial decisions and minimize exposure to the factors that affect most of our competitors.

Our product names are no coincidence. Tribeca Growth, Soho Certificate, and Hamptons Legacy are inspired by three of New York City's most exclusive neighborhoods — each with its own identity, reflecting the profile and time horizon of each certificate.
